Cast Is Announced
“Diary” Production Underway

“Dear Diary, since you and I are going to be great friends, I will start by telling you about myself. My name is Anne Frank…”

This is the first line written in the diary of a young girl who showed to the world the horror of prejudices. The story revolves around a cast of ten. The cast includes:

Mr. Frank, the father: Joe Sabo.
Mrs. Frank, the mother: Louise Burger.
Margot Frank, the oldest daughter: Becky Overcashier.
Anne Frank: Kathy Gamble.
The family living with them are:
Mr. Van Doon, the father of Peter: Bob Higbee.
Mrs. Van Doon, a middle-aged flirt who causes a lot of trouble in the play: Bessie Dendrinos.
Peter Doon, the shy boy who became Anne’s first love: Frank DePasquale.
Miyis, the refugee’s only link with the outside world: Pat Jones.

Mr. Krahler, another aide to the two families: Tim Kuster.
Mr. Dussel, a cranky old man the families took in: Bill Barbour.
The story deals with the loves, hates, and despair of these people.
The play will be presented on April 29.
Tickets will be sold for 50 cents student admission and 75 cents adult admission.

At the present time the cast is busy with rehearsals. “It will be hard work,” said Miss Finley, “but we hope to have a play that everyone will enjoy.”

REVIEWING THEIR LINES for the play are Bessie Dendrinos, Frank DePasquale, Joe Sabo, Patti Jones, Bill Barbour, Bob Higbie and Becky Overcashier. Those absent when the photograph was taken are Kathy Gamble, Louise Burger and Tim Kuster.

Laughlin, Maureen O’Brien, Ralph Dominguez, Chip Conde.

Costumes—Linda Bryant, chairman; Pam Guercia, Charlotte Gray, Debbie Brumbaugh, Sue Berg, Gail Thorley.
Makeup—Barb Hamilton, chairman; Kathy Brewer, Pam Frantz, Debbie Bee.

Participating in the program were the seniors who were elected to the society last year. They are Timothy Lutz, Molly Morrison, Linda Courney, Peggy Robert, Alan Rose, Thomas May, Susan Roshong, Beverly Hodes, Gregory Warth, Larry Regula, Martha Bosley, Sherry Dunlap, Timothy Kuster, Gay Peltola, Margie Flad, Lenora Piccolontonio, Helen Boone, Beth Lindemariner, Lee Ann Naranon and Timothy Myer.

Honor Society Inducts
34 Seniors, 17 Juniors

At ten o’clock yesterday, the Lincoln chapter of the National Honor Society induct 34 seniors and 17 juniors in a special assembly.

Four senior members gave speeches on the four requirements of National Honor Society membership. The meaning of scholarship was given by Alan Rose; leadership, Tim Kuster; character, Sue Roshong; and service, Margie Flad. National Honor Society president, Tim Lutz, was master of ceremonies.

The A Cappella Choir opened the program with Bach’s “Alleluia” and closed with the singing of the benediction.

Seniors elected to the honor society are Kathleen Carey, Mary Casto, Cynthia Clapper, Linda Cordes, Larry Fincher, Kathy Gamble, Linda Gowdy, Thomas Hedrick, Janet Henning, Janet Holzworth, Jane King, Karen Kretzinger, Betty Love, Martha Mains, Phyllis Moshel, Cheryl Miller, Jeffrey Miller, Kathy Moore, Wayne Moreland, Jill Plummer, Judith Poole, Robert Rohrer, William Rohrer, Andrea Roman, Georgene Roman, Linda Roodebush, David Schenekyki, Solly Schweizer, Michael Shevren, Mary Snellenberger, Susan Swihart, Dennis Tidwell, Harriette Traeger and Helen Wonzit.

Lincoln Triumphant In Sectionals:

LINCOLN ECHO

15 cents per single copy

Student Publication of Lincoln High School
Cindy Jacobsen Reigns Lion's Basketball Queen

Lincoln captured its third district basketball crown under Coach Ken Newlon's guidance by defeating five tournament opponents. The Lions knocked off Perry, Glenwood and Timken to capture the sectional crown. Then the Lions conquered Medina and number one ranked McKinley to win the district championship.

The tournament trail ended at Kent when Lincoln's Lions met the Black Panthers from Warren High School on March 17. The luck of the Irish wasn't there for the Lions on St. Patrick's Day and the final count was 73-58.

The Warren offensive machine took the roar out of the Lions with a 56 per cent average from the field. Lincoln connected with 25 out of 66 from the field for a 38 per cent average. The outcome was, in large part, decided from the charity stripe, where Lincoln netted 8 of 14 while Warren hit 19 of 32.

Top gunners for Lincoln were Zielasko with 16 points, Jeff Miller with 15 points and Dan Todd with 11 points.

Lincoln closed out the season with a 19-5 record and was the first Lincoln team to go to the regionals since the '61-'62 quintet.

With six men reaching the double figure mark, the Lions soared to their first tournament victory by downing a fine Perry team 77-55. Hitting 50 per cent from the field and 9 of 13 from the foul line, Lincoln posted quarter leads of 18-9, 32-21, and 53-36. Scoring leaders were Jeff Miller 16, Bruce Fowler 16, Dan Todd 14, Rick Swank 11, Doug Zielasko and Jeff Skeels 10 each.

Scorching the nets at a 58 per cent clip, Lincoln soared past tournament opponent number two, Glenwood, by an 81-63 margin.

Four players hit double figures with Danny Todd leading the way with 21, followed by Bruce Fowler with 19 and Doug Zielasko and Jeff Miller with 17 each.

In winning its second sectional in a row, the Lions defeated Timken 66-44 at Canton Memorial Auditorium. Lincoln was behind 13-11 at the end of the first quarter and 24-22 at the half. But in the third quarter Lincoln went to work and outscored Timken 19-5 to go ahead and post a lead of 32-29 at the end of the third quarter. Beginning to feel their oats, the mighty Lions outscored Timken 28-15 in the last stanza to post the winning margin of 64-49.

Lincoln featured a balanced scoring attack led by Danny Todd with 18 points. Jeff Miller and Bruce Fowler were also in double figures with 11 and 13 points, respectively. Doug Zielasko and Jeff Skeels each added 9 points to the Lincoln total.

(Continued on Page 4, Column 1)